*Thank you very much for downloading
BRITISH BOB. This game has been developed to run on MSX System based devices or emulators.*

It is known that some people are susceptible to epileptic seizures or loss of consciousness when exposed to certain flashing lights, like watching certain television images or playing videogames: if you detect any symptom of involuntary movement or convulsion, disorientation or loss of consciousness while playing a videogame, immediately discontinue use and consult your doctor.

---

Bob to the rescue! The Queen has summoned you to her palace to ask for your help. A gang of thieves has stolen all tea biscuits from the United Kingdom! This is pretty bad news, as you must recover them before tea time.

If you succeed you will get a present from the Queen herself!

Good luck as your quest is about to begin!

The Game

You, as Bob, must travel a variety of different stages. You must get all cookies from each level: once you pick them all, you will be able to get the tea cup. When you get all cookies and the tea cup, the red telephone cabin will open: in order to finish the stage you must get into the telephone cabin, and you will be teleported to the next stage. Stages will keep on getting harder while you progress in your game.

You must avoid enemies, as they are really dangerous. If an enemy touch you, you will lost a life.

Eventually you can collect raindrops that fall from the stormy clouds: you'll get a raindrop with a single touch. Then, you can shoot them to enemies, causing them to stop moving for a limited time.

When an enemy is stopped, it can't hurt you, so you can pass through it without danger. You can also jump the platforms and open your umbrella during a fall: if you do it you'll fall slowly so you can reach certain places by flying.

Time runs fast: if time counter reaches zero, the storm will start and thunderbolts will start to fall from the skies! Try to finish each stage before this happens, as thunderbolts are really dangerous for Bob!

You will find some secret items inside the game. Try to collect them for a special goody.
